

With Adobe, we streamlined a DPS solution to enable sales representatives to access their sales collateral in folios.

Digital Publishing as a Sales Tool

We crafted a user experience that lends itself well to the variety of devices on the market. Doing so allows corporate sales, third party agents, and sales representatives to access and share highly immersive content with clients. Content is viewable on iOS and Android devices.

Customizable to Target Audiences

Our pre-built customizable user interface accelerates the creation of different themes with a unified code-base for easy reskinning and branding.
